PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT BOARD APPOINTS NEW EXECUTIVE OFFICER

SACRAMENTO - The California Physician Assistant Board (PAB) announces the appointment of Maureen Lynn Forsyth as its new Executive Officer, effective September 1, 2016. She replaces Glenn Mitchell who is retiring August 31, 2016.

Ms. Forsyth has held various positions within PAB since 2006 including associate governmental program analyst for both the enforcement and licensing units. Within these two roles, Ms. Forsyth gained extensive knowledge of the Board's two primary functions and served as the liaison to the Department of Consumer Affairs' Division of Investigation and the Attorney General's office. She demonstrated her management skills and analytical skills by interpreting various complex non-routine laws, regulations, legal documents and disciplinary actions. Ms. Forsyth also dealt with the public and members of the media. She also served as a staff service analyst for the PAB.

Maureen's tenure in California state government spans over 20 years including working for the Department of Consumer Affairs, Bureau of Automotive Repair, Medical Board of California and Department of Social Services.

ABOUT PAB: The Physician Assistant Board (PAB) of the Medical Board of California serves and protects consumers through licensing, approving physician assistant training programs, and enforcement of the laws governing the Physician Assistant Practice Act. Learn more at www.pac.ca.gov.
